The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

Sheriffs appointed for the Year enſuing; for

Derbyſhire, Brook Boothby, Eſq;
Suffolk, John Moore of Kentwell, Eſq;

Warſaw, Dec. 26. N. S. King Auguſtus is expected in this City within two or three Days, in order to be preſent at the opening of the general Diet. Several of the Senators and Deputies of the Palatinates have been here for ſome time, and they continue to arrive daily in great Numbers. A Royal Mandate hath been lately publiſhed, and fixed on the uſual Places of the Town, as alſo on the Palace of King Staniſlaus, citing that Prince, the Palatine of Kiovia, and above fifty others of the ſame Party, to appear before the Aſſembly of the States, within ſix Weeks, upon Pain of being declared Enemies of the Kingdom, and forfeiting their Eſtates and Goods. General Ribinski hath cauſed a Manifeſto to be printed, in which he ſets forth the Reaſons of his entring into the Territories of Dantzick, and raiſing the Mony he pretends to have been due to his Army for ſome Years, by military Execution. The Magiſtrates of that City have anſwered him by another Manifeſto, containing the antient Rights and Priviledges of their Town. They write from Caminiec, that a Party of the Palatin of Kiovia's Troops had taken three hundred of our Men Priſoners, and had ſeiz'd two Couriers ſent by our Ambaſſador at the Ottoman Court to this Place, ſo that we are without any certain Account of him, but ſome Advices from Valachia ſay, he is ſtop'd at Adrianople by Order of the Port. Letters from Bender of the 20th paſt, inform us, That the Seraskier Bacha hath had an Audience of the King of Sweden, in which he acquainted him that the Grand Signior had declared War againſt the Muſcovites, and had commanded him to aſſure his Majeſty, that the Port would eſpouſe his Intereſts with Vigour, and take effectual Meaſures to bring him home in ſafety to his own Dominions.

Vienna, January 4. N. S. On Sunday laſt the Foreign Miniſters, Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction were at Court, where they made their Imperial Majeſties the uſual Compliments upon the New Year. The Emperor finding it impracticable to raiſe the Taxes higher, hath required a Loan from each of the Provinces in his Dominions, and the States are to engage themſelves for the repayment of it with Intereſt. Thoſe of Auſtria have already conſented, and it is thought the reſt will do ſo likewiſe. Baron Zumjungen, General of the Artillery, having received his Diſpatches from this Court, is gone Poſt to Milan. His Imperial Majeſty hath ſent Orders to his Miniſter at Conſtantinople, to continue there as long as his Character is reſpected, but to come away as ſoon as the leaſt Violation is offer'd to it. We have been alarm'd with a report of the Plague's breaking out in one of the Suburbs of this City call'd the Roſſau, but upon Examination it proves to have been without any Grounds, and the Phyſicians, who were ſent to Bruck and Presburg, the two moſt ſuſpected Places, aſſure us, that they are at this time more healthy than they have been for many Years; however the Paſſages to thoſe Parts of Hungary are ſtill kept ſhut, which hath raiſed the Price of Corn here to an exceſſive Rate.

Dreſden, January 8. N. S. A Detachment of Pruſſian Troops paſſed by this Place a few Days ago, in their way from Italy to the Dutchy of Magdebourg, and we are aſſured they will be follow'd very ſoon by the remainder of thoſe Forces. Count Vizthum, Great Chamberlain of this Court, is gone from hence to the King at Warſaw, where we are inform'd his Majeſty arrived on the Twenty ninth paſt, and was Complimented by the Biſhops and Secular Senators who were in the Town. On the One and thirtieth the Diet met, and adjourned to the Week following, becauſe ſome of the Deputies were ſtopt on the Road by the Froſt, which hinder'd them from paſſing the Viſtula. Count Flemming is ſtill at Berlin, and it is ſaid he is to go from thence to Poland, to give the King an Account of the Succeſs of his Negotiations.

London, January 19. On Friday laſt John Lord Vaughn of Emlyn in the Kingdom of Great Britain, and Earl of Carbery in the Kingdom of Ireland, died of an Apoplexy at his Houſe in Chelſea. He marry'd the Daughter of George late Marquis of Hallifax, by whom he hath left Iſſue only one Daughter, the Lady Anne, ſo that his Honours are extinct.

Whitehall, January 19. 1712-13.
